THE CAVENDISH GOES BANANAS FOR FAIRTRADE

The Cavendish Hotel in St James's is supporting Fairtrade Fortnight 2009 by taking part in the "Go bananas for Fairtrade" campaign. The finale of Fairtrade Fortnight 2009 will be an event which brings together the whole Fairtrade movement. It will attempt to break the world record for the largest number of bananas eaten in a 24- hour period.

The Go Bananas 24-hour event will take place from Noon on Friday 6 March until Noon on Saturday 7 March 2009.

The Cavendish Hotel will have a variety of Fairtrade banana offerings, including:

- 🍌 Banana cocktail in the Lobby Bar
- 🍌 Banana smoothies in the Lounge
- 🍌 Banana splits in The Restaurant
- 🍌 Whole bananas at breakfast
- 🍌 Bananas at reception for guests checking-in and checking-out

The hotel's restaurant, David Britton at The Cavendish, will also have a special menu running for the duration of Fairtrade Fortnight, from 23 February – 8 March 2009, which will include a wide array of Fairtrade products.

The hotel offers Fairtrade tea, coffee and sugar in the bedrooms and Fairtrade fruit is used throughout the hotel.

The four-star deluxe Cavendish Hotel is a modern and contemporary hotel situated on London's prestigious Jermyn Street, off St James's. The hotel's location on this quiet street behind Fortnum & Mason makes it perfect for visiting the shops and boutiques of Bond and Regent Street, as well as being only a short fifteen minute walk from Hyde Park.
