NEW YEAR'S EVE CELEBRATIONS AT THE CAVENDISH HOTEL

Celebrate New Years Eve 2008 in style at the four-star deluxe Cavendish Hotel. Located on Jermyn Street in the heart of London, the hotel is five minutes from Piccadilly Circus, Oxford Street and the River Thames, making it the perfect place to welcome in 2009.

The towering 15-floor hotel offers dramatic views across London's skyline and has superb views of the fantastic New Year's Eve fireworks display over the River Thames. On New Year's Day the famous Lord Mayors Parade passes through Piccadilly, just a two minute walk from the hotel.

The Cavendish has 230 guestrooms which are stylish and chic with a neutral colour scheme of cream and beige, against dark wood furniture. Upon entering the hotel, guests are greeted with a contemporary interior which is backlit in white by day and purple by night, giving a trendy edge to the décor.

A one night New Year's Eve stay in a Classic Room starts from £199 including full English breakfast and VAT. Executive rooms with views of The London Eye and the fireworks are available from £259 including Full English breakfast and VAT.
